RULES AND REGULATIONS

- A student-athlete is eligible to participate in the PSAL immediately upon registration and admission into a New York City Department of Education public high school which offers PSAL athletics, provided the student-athlete meets the standards set forth by the Eligibility Rules and Regulations.
- The 5+1 Rule - In order to gain and/ or maintain eligibility a student-athlete must pass five credit bearing courses + physical education in the most recent marking period. A student-athlete is accountable for passing five credit bearing courses + physical education each marking period that he/she participates in PSAL athletics.
- Incoming 9th grade student-athletes are eligible to compete in PSAL activities immediately upon entry into high school. The second report card is the first report card used to determine continued eligibility for 9th grade students.
- At least three of the five subjects passed must be core subjects – English, Mathematics, Social Studies, and/or Science.
- The 10 Credit Rule - A student-athlete must accumulate a minimum of ten (10) credits, not including physical education, in the two semesters prior to the eligibility period (all credits accumulated in night school and summer school are included). This rule takes effect beginning with a student's third semester in high school.
